St. Andre Bessette; Outreach Center

Rooted in Catholic tradition, Mardi Gras marks the last day of feasting before Lent's fasting and penance. The day embodies the joy and gratitude for God's gifts, reminding us to reflect on our spiritual journey and prepare our hearts for the renewal and repentance of Lent, a season which, in turn, is ordered toward preparing for the great celebration of Easter. Catholics celebrate to enjoy earthly blessings before Lent, the season of spiritual preparation and sacrifice.
