Mass Intentions
For the Week:
April 4-
April 12, 2026

Greetings from Father Scott:

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL

Easter is the celebration of victory: not just an event in the past, but a living reality. Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death, and because of that, nothing in our lives is beyond redemption.

• Hope in the Resurrection

No matter what burdens you carry—grief, sin, uncertainty—Easter proclaims that new life is always possible through Christ.

• Personal Renewal

Easter is an invitation to rise with Jesus: to leave behind old habits, embrace grace, and live as people transformed by God’s love.

• Joy and Witness

The Resurrection isn’t meant to be kept private. Catholics are called to bring that joy into families, communities, and the wider world.

• Trust in God’s Mercy

Even after failure (like St. Peter’s denial), Christ restores and calls us again.

Dear Parishioners,
What a wonderful afternoon we shared at our Maple Fest Dinner! Thanks to your generosity, joyful spirit, and helping hands, we not only enjoyed a delicious meal together but also raised $3,802.50 to support our parish outreach programs.

From the golden ham to the laughter echoing through the hall, the afternoon was filled with community, connection, and gratitude. A special thank you to our volunteers, bakers, and kitchen crew who worked tirelessly to make the event run smoothly — you are the heart of our parish family.

Let’s carry this spirit forward as we continue to serve, celebrate, and grow together in faith.

With gratitude and blessings, Fr. Scott
